

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for contacting the Office of Senator Rand Paul regarding the United States Senate's Page Program. Sen. Paul is eager to offer this unique learning experience to students in Kentucky.

Attached you will find the page program application. Please complete the application to the best of your ability. Also, please include a high school transcript complete with your current grade point average (GPA). Applications must be postmarked by Dec.16, 2013, to meet the spring semester deadline. Please mail the completed application to:

Office of Senator Rand Paul
Attn: Sandra Sabbagh
124 Russell Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510

The Spring Page session will begin on Monday, Jan. 27, 2014, and will end on Friday, June 6. The Office of the Sergeant at Arms will provide the applicant with more information once a selection has been made. If you have questions that have not been answered on the website or in this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me at (202) 224-4343.

Sincerely,

Sandra Sabbagh
Office of Sen. Rand Paul

CERTIFICATION, RELEASE AND SIGNATURE

I certify that all of the information I have supplied on this application is true, correct, complete, and made in good faith. I understand that a false or fraudulent answer to any question or item on any part of this application, or the withholding or omission of any information requested on this application, may be grounds for not selecting me for a page position, or for terminating my position after I begin, and may be punishable by fine or imprisonment (U.S. Code, Title 18 Sec. 1001).

I understand that any information I give may be investigated and that the Office of Senator Rand Paul reserves the right to conduct a background check, which may include a reference check, searches conducted on the Internet, and/or a criminal background check. I consent to such a background check and to the release of information about my ability and fitness for a page position with the Office of Senator Rand Paul by employers, schools, law enforcement agencies, and other individuals and organizations to investigators, personnel specialists, and other authorized employees or representatives of the Office of Senator Rand Paul. I understand that for financial or lending institutions, medical institutions, hospitals, healthcare professionals, and some other sources of information, a separate specific release may be needed, and I may be contacted for such a release at a later date.

If selected as a page and in consideration of my appointment as a page, I agree to conform to the applicable rules and regulations of the United States Senate and the Office of Senator Rand Paul. It is the policy of the Office of Senator Rand Paul that if I maintain a public, non-password-protected presence on any blog (including, without limitation, social and professional networking sites, social media sites, blog sites, media sites, and local and national political blogs and websites), I will be required to disclose that information to the Office of Senator Paul when I start my session as a page. This obligation is ongoing and applies even if I create, maintain, supplement, comment on, and/or edit the blog on my own time and using my own equipment.

My position as a page may be terminated with or without cause and with or without notice, at any time, at the option of either the Office or me. I understand that no representative of the Office of Senator Rand Paul, except the Chief of Staff, has any authority to make any agreement contrary to the foregoing. Any such agreement between the Chief of Staff and me must be in writing.

I understand that a page position with the Office of Senator Rand Paul is at-will. Nothing in this application alters a page's at-will status.

I have read and understand all of the above.
